Speaking Where The Bible Speaks; Silent Where The Bible Is Silent

September 23, 2012

ABASIAMA'S REPORT FROM CAMEROON, AUGUST 2012

Greetings dear brethren in Christ and readers of Cameroon missions reports. Hope all is well with you at this time. Here we come your way again with the information concerning our work of preaching the Lord in Limbe and in other places as our outreach goes far beyond the borders of the oceanic city. Something interesting happened as we worked tirelessly to accomplish our own quota in the universal commission of our great God. "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" was the theme of Jesus evangelism along the shores of the Galilean sea when He providentially came across Simon peter and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea to catch fish. At that moment, two fishermen were converted into fishers of men. A similar event occurred in Limbe while we were telling some prospects of Jesus. One of them, Effiong Alferd, was literally mending his nets when the gospel call came ringing through his neighborhood. He heard it, believed it and was baptized. This new convert may never literally abandon his fishing nets like Apostle Peter but he has been joyfully worshipping the Lord with our congregation Help. Thus, by God's powerful grace a man has been saved of a lifetime of desperate poverty and desperate poverty and despairing need of the soul. Here are a few photos of the celebrated occasion of his conversion.

Our radio program is still very much famous in Limbe and environs. The Mile One church is almost always flooded with visitors drawn to our worship services by means of this modern way of proclaiming the ancient Jerusalem gospel. And the Lord is adding to our number monthly such as should be saved.

Still on outreach, we once again tried to help change the future of the children in Limbe as we organized a Vacation Bible School (VBS) to teach the little ones about Jesus Christ and these kids were encouraged to develop a lifelong relationship with God. The three-day Bible-based program ended successfully with these children returning to secular school with Bible stories planted in their young and impressionable hearts. We believe that what the children have learned through this year's VBS will go a long way to prepare them for their future in God. The age range of the children who participated in the program is 3 to 15. They were divided into various groups to effectively teach them the way of the way of the Lord.

The month under reappraisal was especially a very busy one for me. I needed to contribute to the success of the Summer Youth Retreat (SYR), an annual youth program of the entire brotherhood in Cameroon. I was scheduled to speak on "Our Crucifixion with Christ"—Gal. 2.20.

I did. I also converted that scripture into a song of which the youth were excited to sing and praise the Lord with it. Without the help of the youth, it will be difficult to spread the truth, since they are the ones full of energy and dynamism to implement the great calling of the great commission. The elderly serve as a library to guide the youth on how to go about meeting the global need of the gospel in people's lives.

That is why we will never fail to recognize the great effort of those of you who have designated a given percentage of your income to sponsor the spread of the gospel in Africa. We thank for identifying with Cameroon missions by supporting financially, and thus providing the necessary things for our missionary journeys in Cameroon. We thank you dear partners for your donations to uphold this noble cause of Christ. May the Lord bless and support your own personal endeavors.

And now we thank the Lord for brother Olan's recovery. We will keep on praying for him to be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Weeping may endure for the night but joy comes with the morning light. We now dedicate the victories that Cameroon missions gained in August to the loving memory of Sister Carol whom the Lord has called to join the ransomed throng in heavenly glory. Nevertheless, our sympathies are with you the church at Ellabell and the immediate family as well. We pray that God will overwhelm you with His comfort as you take solace in the truth that "precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints"...Psalm 116.15. We also wish to send our special condolences to the minister of Ellabell Church of Christ as he grieves for his late uncle Stanley Holloway who has left this life for the next. It is our earnest prayer that the God of all comfort will console the church, families and individuals who are directly or indirectly affected by these transitions to the happy summer land of bliss. To God be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations.
