ELLABELL CHURCH OF CHRIST

SPEAKING WHERE THE BIBLE SPEAKS; SILENT WHERE THE BIBLE IS SILENT

September 9, 2012

From Sandra Ekpot - Nigeria

Hi brother Joe, we will continue to pray for God's will to be done in the life of sister Carol

From Candice Lassiter – Dallas, TX

Thank you for sharing Joe, I wish I could be there with the family. I just hate all this for her. And to hear she is still issuing orders from her bedside, it makes me smile thru the tears but I just don't understand why it had to happen to her!

From Shonna Smith – Mountain Home, AR

Saying a prayer Bro. Joe!! You were there when our family walked through that same dark night some 26 yrs ago, last month.

We so dearly love you & feel for you, Joe Holloway! I'm sure that's not quite on the mind of a young man when he's looking at your profession as his life's journey..... but, we were glad you were with us & I know that MANY have felt as we do, since that time. ;) We pray for your strength!

Joe, the scriptures you've quoted bring tears to my eyes because I feel that..... I sooooo HATE death!! It's taken so many people I love.... Those are such HONEST & RAW words of scripture! ;) Thank You for sharing during your tough time....

From D'Lee Pollack-Moore Ellabell, GA

I know how burdened you are tonight from our talk earlier. I love you! I have never met Carol, but I know so much about her from you. May her spirit and legacy live on in her family and church family.

From Joe Goodspeed – Conroe, TX

God bless all of you!

From Ucheena Beekee - Nigeria

In every situation, the child of God is encouraged to give thanks. For if only in this life we have hope, we are of most men miserable. There is a crown ahead of Her in faith of Jesus Christ. Brother Joe, you and all the families there are in our prayers from Nigeria.

From Bontha Swarupa Rani - India

MAY GOD WILL GIVE HER GOOD HEALTH

From Peter Dennis – India

I am praying for Sis Carol Hall and her family. May the loving LORD be with them in every need!

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." [Matt 6:33]

From Caleb Parker – Washington, D.C.

I pray that it will indeed be better soon

From Abasiama Archibong – Cameroon

It was encouraging to hear that Bro. Olan is progressing in his recovery. We will keep him mentioned to God in our daily prayers. And for sister Carol, we will also keep praying. Nothing is impossible with God. However, we will accept whatever eventually will become the will of God. Thanks for your prayer requests, they have made us a little more prayerful, rather than being bothered. Praying for one another, as apostle Paul advocated, is one of the gospel commands of loving one another. And anything we do in love brings personal satisfaction to ourselves. Even when we pray and the result of the prayer seems not to favor us, we are still fulfilled because the outcome of the prayer helps us know the will of God concerning the subject matter of the prayer. Let's keep praying and trusting God in every situation.

From Swarupa VanDan – India

Thanks for the details of the health of bro, Olan's recovery, and also about sis Carol. I am very sorry about her and she looks so strong and looks like Iron women, hope she will recover from that very soon. we are all praying for him, and her, there is nothing bothering in this to pray it is my blessing to pray for them, really i am enjoying to speak with God for others needs.

From Tom Ekpot Jr. - Nigeria

I salute you and the Church. I am so glad that brother Olan can get back home by himself. I thank God for His graciousness. On the other hands, my heart bleeds that sister Carol is going away. I feel right in me her departure. I can still remember her and her husband when I visited Ellabell. My love to her husband. My father is also lying in serious pains for four days now. Last night I spoke with on phone, but he was just crying. Please, join me in prayers for his health. Say my greetings to our beloved brother Olan. Your mail dripped tears down my cheek. I sympathize with all these families as they have leave the rest of this painful life without one who has meant so much to them. Surely I know that the Church is going to miss Sister Carol. Please, do accept my sympathies over the death of your uncle. My dad is still in pains. I pray God will heal him fast. Have a great day.

From Lynda Hamlet Smith - Pembroke

I first met Carol Hall in 1990 she was a Mary Kay sales lady. I later ran in to her when we moved to Pembroke. What a great lady she is! God bless her.

And the angels carried her away! Beautiful scene to envision

Lewis & Charlene Stewart – Statesboro, GA

Joe, you know you are in our prayers--always. While I do not know those you've lost this week, I feel the need to remind you that we are grieving "from afar" with you. Loss of loved ones, even our pets, leaves a hole in our hearts that only time, prayer and sweet memories can fill. May you have peace soon. Love, Charlene
