Dear Ladies,

We were able to go to the wedding of Sheila and Ricardo of which Roland had his part in the service. It was nice and quite far from Paris. I'm asking special prayers for Enyo our sister from Togo, Africa and Annie our sister from Guadeloupe as both are having problems with their health and not able to work.

Am happy to write that Thomas Heyman has obeyed the Lord in Madagascar and Roland had been studying and giving correspondent courses to. Also here in Paris Clement Okopu, 32 years old from Ghana, was immersed by Roland on August 18th, 2013.

Frederic and Daniella Bahloul visited us from Strasbourg, France and we are sad to say that Brother Stephan Adjekota has left the church for a Pentecostal group. We have talked to him by phone, and he just keeps saying that we are wrong.

My studies with Kenza are going well. I will contact Amelie to start up with her again soon. My little lady Christiane, ninety years old has been feeling tired but seems to be doing well for her age. Colette Chaos's Dad isn't well and refuses to go to hospital.

Our friends, Lionel and Cecile and their family have visited our worship a couple of times from outside of Paris and we ask for prayers for them to open their hearts and understand the Gospel. They have known us ever since we had the teenage girls at home.

We also ask prayers for all the sick, the jobless, our financial support and contacts that we are trying to teach and the new babes in Christ.

I was able to finish up two needlepoint pieces that I'd like to use for gifts when we go back to the U.S.A. for our furlough in 2015.

Looking forward to the wedding of Rony and Veronique that Roland will be doing his part in that too. . Pray for them and the other newlyweds. Sending hugs and thanks for all that each and every one of you does for us and the Lord's work.

In Christian love,
Rose
