Rest in Peace Brother Olan Bacon

A long life which was much too short for Ellabell.
You left a huge hole in our congregation and our heart. Your legacy is all of us.
Our loss is

Email from Nigeria

Dear brother Holloway, greetings to you and to the Ellabell family, which I am one. My heart is so heavy and I don't know how to respond to this news. It is another hard and difficult experience, which we must accept. While it is so difficult for me to accept, yet I have no argument with God. I know as it is hard for me here, the family and the congregation are experiencing much more difficult time. Last Sunday morning I escape being mobbed by some Muslim youth. I thought the week was going to go without bad news.

This has reminded me again of the fact that we are in a transiting world. I can remember sitting on the seat brother Olan is on the picture discussing with him when I came to Ellabell. He shared with me some experiences of life and the struggles the Church went through to be what it was then. Even though he has gone to be with God, yet he will be remembered so much for his self-less sacrifice for the progress of the work in Ellabell and in Africa. May God keep blessing his wife who was a great support to him. My condolence to the family and to the Church. We have truly missed a brother, a father, grand-father, husband, friend, co-worker and a spiritual mentor.

Grace and Peace,

Tom

Email from Cameroon

Sir, I just sent my report before checking my inbox to notice that brother Olan has gone home. I send my condolences to the family and the brethren of Ellabell. In my report I was still praying for bro. Olan before I opened your updated prayer request mail to read the heart-rending news. It is a difficult time for all of us and a very sad moment in the history of West African missions. I am sorry.

-Abasiama John Archibong

Rachel Shelly Elder Taylor Saying a prayer for all - it's bitter sweet sorrow when we know the angels are welcoming a faithful servant home

Douglas Dermond I have lost a good friend. I always enjoyed working with Olan on the church's problems. He made my job a lot easier to make sure things were completed. Please let us know if there is anything at all we can help with. The Dermond Family

Alex Torney I'm going to miss brother Olan he was an amazing guy he was funny, intelligent, and wise he brought joy to the world
REST IN PEACE

Email from Cameroon

May Our Father continue to look after his family.
