Abasiama's Report from Cameroon

September 21, 2014

August Report from Cameroon – Abasiama John Archibong

"Pray as though everything depended on God, work as though everything depended on you" said Saint Augustine. This exhortation summarizes our attitude toward our job of preaching in Limbe in the rainy month of August. Normal life, routines and evangelistic activities in the month of August are often crippled by incessant rainfall. In August 2014 the rain was heavily poured down just like last year. Everything was the same except that we put more efforts and unexpectedly the result of our rainy season evangelism was rather positively affected. The rains came down, and a lot of times they defied our umbrella and got us well beaten to the point that I become ill with fever. One day I was returning from evangelism down from the Bakoko Hills and was unavoidably drenched in the turbulent rain water that freely eroded the muddy road. The difference is that souls have come to hear the good news in a bad weather and they have accepted to be baptized with water. Some of these August new converts include Brother Collins, Brother Jude and Thierry. Three able bodied young men accepting the Gospel at this critical time of their life is amazing. Although we know the power of the Gospel and that of its proclamation, we nonetheless get surprised to see worldly men in their thirties abandoning their old life at a young age to follow the ancient Jerusalem Jesus. It thrills the preacher to behold such a wondrous scenario. That is just one simple news item in the plethora of complex stories that will always outlive our present evangelism efforts in Cameroon, not just Limbe.

I will not fail to happily share with my sponsors the sweet soul-winning story of our preaching expeditions in the almost-no-sunshine month of August. Brother Abanda Edwin is young whom I baptized not so many months ago this year. He heard us on air and gave his life to Christ after a few months of listening to our LET THE BIBLE SPEAK on Eden Radio.

During the summer holidays, this zealous new brother traveled to his home town in the northwest region of Cameroon. Precisely in a place called Bengwi. There he began to preach like Saul of Tarsus immediately after conversion. He has baptized his own father and four others in his community. That's not all. He has initiated a LET THE BIBLE SPEAK radio program on Radio Bengwi every Sunday evening at 6-7 p.m. His father has so delightfully embraced the Gospel that a small congregation has begun in their home in Bengwi. Moreover, we could correspond with Edwin while on air in Bengwi from Limbe by phone while preaching on radio. That is radio to radio simultaneously, meaning all listeners in Bengwi hearing what we are broadcasting from Limbe and vice versa. It is unprecedented in our history of evangelism in Cameroon that a young convert has reached this height so soon. Please join us to praise God for success! It is a great thing to evangelize. I don't like to say I am "proud" of anything or of a person, but Edwin has "forced" me to say I am proud of him! See Edwin here reporting to us at Washing Point in a Wednesday Bible class. His young faith has encouraged the brethren to do more in soul-winning.

The Church at Washing Point, Limbe wishes to greet all of you in America for standing by us in our effort to do the God work.

Well, that is about all I thought I could share with you in the August edition of our report. Lest I forget, thank you so much for putting in your money in our journey of missions. We simply cannot, for want of better expression, fully say all the thoughts of gratitude in a paper report like this one in your hands. All we can say is thank you and thank you and thank you a million times. One more word from Saint Augustine and our August report is done:

"What does love look like?

It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like". And Abasiama says that is what all of our supporting congregations such as Ellabell, Raytown, Statesboro, and others look like.
