REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH, 2016 (TOM EK POT JR)

My very dear brethren, I greet you all with the love of Christ. We remain grateful to God for His unquantifiable love He continues to shower on us. His choosing us out of the great number in the world to be His children and to be His messengers gives me the reason to rejoice all the time. I appreciate you all for standing by us in carrying out this assignment of reaching the lost with the Gospel and keeping the saved save. We have seen His hand in everything we do.

The situation in Nigeria since last December 2015 is what we cannot describe. Situation is growing from bad to worse. The economy has collapsed, and movement from place to place has become increasingly difficult as the gas scarcity increases. Presently, we are buying a liter of fuel for over 1$. The worse is that we do not even see it to buy, people spend days cueing for fuel in gas stations. Quality hours are spent in cues. I appeal that you keep praying for us, especially I have to move to villages for my evangelism and mission work. Prices of things have now gone beyond the reach of common Nigerians. I am afraid if this continues for the next two months, people will not be able to attain our forth coming annual lectureship program. It will equally affect our evangelism campaign coming up first week of May. By this week, I should have been in Taraba State to conduct marriage seminar, but this has to be postponed because participants won't be able to pay their ways to the place in view of the fuel challenges. Economic situation is very biting very hard. The crises that happened last year, in which farmers were driven away from their villages and their farm destroyed by cattle herdsmen, is having its full scale effect now on the Country, coupled along with the current fuel crisis. Brethren, please join us in prayers.

However, my work continues in the rural area of Plateau State. I completed my series on Discipline last week. Our children class at Foron Mission is becoming more interesting. As I mentioned in my February's report, our interest is to bring in children from the village and teach them the Gospel. Gradually, we hope to expand the area of coverage to include teaching the kids how to read and write since we have two trained teachers in the congregation. By so doing, we will grab their interests. We will equally get to their parents with the Gospel. We just have to be innovative for Jesus.

The Church at New Foron is growing as well. I am grateful because there are some men among them to lead even in my absence. Last month, twice I had to re-arrange my schedules to worship with the two congregations on the same day. We started early at Mission so that we can close early for me to reach New Foron. The Devil brought confusion among them that led to quarrelling among them. What pleases me was that the fighting was on how to carry out the work of benevolence, not on selfish interest. Even though the fighting was carnal, yet it shows that they are doing benevolence work. I had to step in before serious damage was done. I am glad that as at last week, all them were in worship, and the fighting has been resolved amicably.

At Mazah, our Friday class on 1 Corinthians is ongoing. It is very interesting now as more members are coming for the class. Sandra has now organized a class for the women. This class is scheduled on Saturdays evening. The women are so excited about. The first session kicks off this coming Saturday evening. Please, do join in praying for the success of this class. That class comes up after our evangelism outreach in the morning and afternoon. My Tuesday class on the book of Romans at Ring Road Church of Christ is ongoing. Hopefully, I will complete the book this month. The class has been for over 7 months now. At the School of Biblical Studies, Jos, we are hoping to end the session at the end of this month, then proceed for 9 days of evangelism campaign for Christ in early May. Keep praying for us that this year campaign will be successful. Brethren, several works are ongoing. These would not have been without God using each and every one of you in different ways to reach us. May He continue to bless you all. Thank you for praying always for us, and spending your money for us. We are deeply touched, and we remain thankful to God.
