ELLABELL CHURCH OF CHRIST

SPEAKING WHERE THE BIBLE SPEAKS; SILENT WHERE THE BIBLE IS SILENT

December 11, 2011

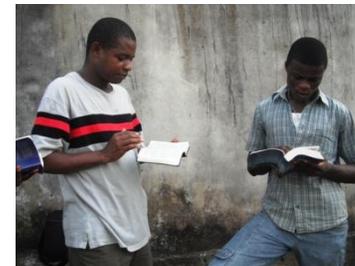

ABASIAMA'S NOVEMBER 2011 REPORT FROM

CAMEROON

The beginning of the end of the year 2011 is already here with all the inspiration it brings to my heart that very soon I will be talking about my 5th anniversary with West African Missions. Our sense of accomplishment is further rocketed because the blessed Lord keeps adding to our number those who are being saved. Day by day we are seeing the marvelous hand of the Lord in this ministry and so we have every reason to continue to believe in His promises for the security of our souls as we try to win the souls of others into the Lord's body.

November was notably successful not only in soul-winning efforts, but also in the congregational life of the church at Mile One. Our constant outreach with the gospel to edify the brethren and to evangelize the perishing resulted in the spiritual and numerical growth of the church in Limbe. Please take a look at the pictures of brother Ebai Ayuk

Harrinton, whose baptism is a major testimony of the power of the gospel to convict the soul, and in this case a young man, to abandon a world of sinful pleasures and entertainment for the sake of Christ. Ebai is a Secondary school student who just could not resist the higher calling of Christ when he listened to our heard the message of salvation in Christ. With so much thanks to you at Ellabell, we are overjoyed to tell you that Ebai is the first recipient of a copy of the 15 Bibles you posted to us to help our new converts with the most important tool for their Christian walk. Your contributions to the results of our evangelism is significant, and we value and appreciate every of the help we receive from you to bring the lost to the Lord.

The above evangelistic story would not have been completely successful if the congregation to which the newly converted are added is not a conducive spiritual refectory in which to feed the newly born sheep. We thank the Lord for the Mile One church of Christ family, a hardworking group of believers who remain devoted to providing a welcoming environment for the nurturing of babies born through baptism. You can see the latest photos of a cross-section of the church standing together in solidarity for the Great commission.

We are therefore very thankful to God for all of you for supporting us to do this work. We thank you of the Ellabell Church extraction of the Great Commission, for the pivotal role you have played thus far to keep the flag of gospel flying in various fractions of the world. God's goodness in Christ We give special thanks to you dear partners in the proclamation of the greatest news of God's goodness in Christ to the world. Thanks for remaining steady in the West African missions team. We pray that this wonderful teamwork will last a lifetime so the gospel might reach every soul. We are thankful to you Brother Larry Sheehy of the Statesboro Church of Christ for your personal support to us. God bless you for that special gift which has been forwarded to our building fund. We are moving ahead in our effort to have our place of worship. The orphans are equally thanking you for your love and charity toward them. They are doing well. Three of them are in school while one is learning a trade. Their health is also in good shape. They are thanking God for the assistance they receive regularly from you.

We leave you with God's blessings and protection just as we all wish you many happy returns as you approach a number of celebrations as the year comes to an end.
