Hello brother Holloway,
Greetings to you and the Church. Thank God that this week has come and gone. It was a busy time for me, right from last week. Since we returned from 9 day campaign for Christ, which eventually became 10 days because we could return to Jos on the day we were to come back due to scarcity of gasoline and fear of entering Jos town in the night. I will give you a comprehensive report on that. However, it was a great outing as 14 people were brought to Christ. We had the 20th graduation ceremony of the Bible School in Jos on the 14th. Then on the 16th, our 4 day annual lectureship commenced. We had people coming from Chad Republic and Liberia. We had poor turn up because people are afraid of coming to Jos, fearing that violence may erupt any moment. Thank you for taking time to pray for us.
Grace and peace
Tom
