ELLABELL CHURCH OF CHRIST

SPEAKING WHERE THE BIBLE SPEAKS; SILENT WHERE THE BIBLE IS SILENT

March 11, 2012

Abasiana's February 2012 Report From Cameroon coordinating in Cameroon missions.

Hello everyone! Hope your work in the Lord is continuously fruitful just like it is here in Cameroon. We have some great news to share with you concerning the work of spreading the saving message in Africa. First of all, I thank you for your commitment to reading our report of what the Lord is

When God brought us safely into 2012, we were all filled with joy and full of hope that things would improve in the interest of the work of reaching out with the gospel to those precious but perishing souls far and near. That joy is blossoming with time and the hope has proven to be blessed especially with the constant additions to the membership of the kingdom.

Let me begin by sharing with you the rewards we have received from the Lord of harvest who has been the pillar that holds our evangelism life. In the month under appraisal, He added two people, just like He did in January, to the kingdom. This increase in our number is a very loud testimony that God is the one who has been going with us on these evangelism trips. We are spiritually proud to introduce to you these two gentlemen: Amugu Raphael and Abessolo Michael. Both of them were baptized the same day to the glory of God, and have been in steadfast fellowship with us as church members. See Raphael and Michael here, so happy to be consecrated to His service in the Church of Christ.

We equally are also thanking God for our radio preaching that has been of tremendous impact in city of Limbe and surrounding villages. The program keeps bringing many visitors to the church, and some of them have already become baptized believers. Thanks to the God who supplies the strength for the maintenance of this soul-winning program which we have been running for more than three years now. Here is me on fire in the studio, broadcasting the timeless gospel to save a hopeless people.

Away from soul-winning reports, let me now remind you of the latest sensation in the Mile One Church. It is no other subject except the groundwork of our church building. Yes, the foundation has been laid and everybody is joyous in the church. The building has engaged our best efforts in terms of cooperation and togetherness in fulfillment of our collective New Year resolve encapsulated in the song "I Want to Be a Worker." We all in the church, from the preacher to the newest convert, are making concerted effort to realize this dream of having our own place of worship. Look at me helping the bricklayers to convey some quantity of sand to the designated place via a wheelbarrow. Earlier, during the preparation of the Land, we were all actively involved in manually clearing the swampy land for the construction. We are literally sweating to make this sweet dream come true. Do remember the Mile One congregation in your prayer meetings, and mention to the Lord our building work which in turn will affect our preaching work. God bless you all for taking this prayer request seriously, knowing that it is a real need that must be met for the sake of worship and evangelism. Take a look at the level of construction attained so far at this foundational phase of the construction.

Our joy is multifaceted. We rejoice because the Lord is with us and for us, and no person or thing that has tried to dampen our morale in this work has ever succeeded to do so. Against all odds, defying every obstacle, ours has been success upon success.

Furthermore, we rejoice that such a great co-operation exists among us in this mission work that has brought the light of the gospel to the people of Cameroon. So we appreciate all of you whose financial donation has been markedly instrumental in the furtherance of the kingdom work of gospel proclamation. We sincerely thank you and earnestly pray that God bless you and your families. Speaking for my family and the orphans, our heart desire and prayer to God is for you to prosper in every domain of your endeavor, and to reap the fruit of your unconditional commitment to the success of the great commission.

Email from Nigeria (Rec'd March 5, 2012)

Hello brother Holloway,

Thanks so much. We appreciate the brotherhood for their sacrifice. We are doing our best to keep safe, but sometimes is never in our hands, as it is unpredictable especially when it concerns suicide bombers. We always pray to have people come to worship with us, we do not know how to examine everyone who comes to the Church to ensure that he/she is not a suicide bomber. I had been hearing this kind of a thing happening in Iraq, it is frightening to see it in Nigeria. But I am not surprised because when the Devil takes over someone's life, he/she is heading to destruction without caring. Not only so, but it wants to destroy as many he/she can along with his/herself. May God continue to help us. Please, keep praying for us and the brethren in the northern Nigeria.

Grace and Peace,
Tom
