REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER, 2012 (TOM EK POT JR)

I greet you all in the precious name of our savior Jesus Christ. We thank God for His great work of kindness upon our lives throughout the month of September. The month of September which started just yesterday is now behind us. I could not catch a gleam of how the month was rushing out of the way. I tell you, several things happened during the month, and God took our hands through all of them. Our children have returned to school after the two months break.

The month of September ushered in heavy rainfall that doubled August's experience. Several places flooded in Nigeria, causing destruction of people's farms and homes. Several lives were lost as well. One major effect of this is going to be a high cost of living in the coming year as many farms were submerged by flood. There will be scarcity of food. Well, we know God can do His wonders. Not until today, the central part of Nigeria, where Jos is part of, witnessed a bomb free month. But today, in Kaduna, the next city to Jos, there was a bomb blast. The casualty data is not yet released. Last week at Bauchi State, a neighboring State to Jos, had its own share of bomb attack on a denomination, where three people were killed and over three dozens injured. We thank God because, He has spared us from some these troubles. At the School of Biblical Studies, we hosted our 14th annual preachers' and leaders' workshop from 27th to 28th, with the theme, "The Preacher and His Work in the Local Congregation." Several preachers and church leaders came for the program not minding the security risk that exists in Jos. We thank God many of them have since returned home safely.

Each week I conduct three Bible Studies, and all of these studies are gaining more interest. I have concluded my lesson on Colossians 3 with the Ring Road Church of Christ, even though the Church asked me to speak for the next two Sundays on the husband and wife relationship. At Mazah congregation, our evangelism effort yielded result as a soul was added to the church. Today, after worship, we gathered to pray in the house of a brother, whose daughter was knocked down by a fast moving car. We thank God because the girl has regained consciousness. Please, keep the young girl in your prayers. Similarly, my wife has an accident last Friday. The car she boarded had a head on collision with an on-coming car. I thank God because apart from the few bruises on her legs and the pain she is complaining around her wrist, there was no much problem. She was able to worship today. My father whose health deteriorated again has improved remarkably. Thanks you for your prayers. We thank God as well for the life of my dear brother, father, and friend, Olan. His recovery has increased my faith in God again. Our sympathy continue to go the family of my late beloved sister Carol. Her passing on has reminded me that one day, I will have to say goodbye to people in this life. Therefore, I have to use every minute God gives me rightly. Let me appreciate God for using you all individually and collectively to assist us in divers ways. We so much appreciate you. May God keep blessing you all in every good way.

Message from Rose Hohsen, Paris, France

Joe, could you please thank the church for my birthday card. What a lovely card. All our love to Ellabell.

Email from Nigeria Rec'd October 1, 2012

Hello brother Holloway,
Greetings to you, mom, dad and the Church. I am so grateful for support for this month. It is a big sacrifice you are making. May God continue to bless you all. Today was Nigerian Independence Day celebration. People were at home throughout because of fear of bomb blast. We thank God because nothing close to that happened. Give my appreciation to the Church.

Grace and Peace,
Tom

Greetings to you from sister Lami and our children. Hope Bro. Olan is doing well in health. Thanks a lot.

An old Cherokee chief was teaching his grandson about life ...

"A fight is going on inside me," he said to the boy. "It is a terrible fight and it is between two wolves.

"One is evil- he is anger, envy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority, lies, false pride, superiority, self-doubt, and ego.

"The other is good - he is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion, and faith.

"This same fight is going on inside you - and inside every other person, too. "

The grandson thought about it for a minute and then asked his grandfather, "Which wolf will win?"

The old chief simply replied, "The one you feed. "
