Dear Ladies,

I hope you all are doing well. April and May have been busy months for me. I had to do a lot of shopping and getting medicines while Roland was sick. Plus Spring cleaning,

Had to take my dog to the vet for vaccination and to get an abscessed tooth pulled. He got better on antibiotics after a few days.

Philippians 4:13

I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

I've been studying with a Sister in Christ named Miselaine Joseph on Thursday afternoon's English Bible classes. She is a beginner so it is slow. We had Joyce and Wilfred Deschamps here from the 7th to 14th of May and it was sad to see them leave for Mauritius Island.

We were with Edie and Paul Tews in Southwest France from the 15th until the 18th of May. We visited places that we never seen before and had rain and even some snow on the trip.

I still have my classes with Amelie, and have learned a few new ways to do some crochet from the book she bought me on crochet. Since it is a French book on 250 ways to crochet, I am struggling to learn but have made some Afghans as wedding presents and birthday presents and for some newborn babies.

I also am still having English/Bible classes with Natalie Nguyen. I won't have her till the exams are finished for school on the 26th of June. Emmanuel will be passing the same tests. This is a stressful time for those of that age. Emmanuel is 16 years old now.

We were happy to have Steven, Anna, Amelia, and Nvie in our home and worship. They are from Cumming, GA. Anna and I went to a flea market nearby while she was here and she bought me some yarn. So happy for that and got the yarn from Terri too.

Love in Christ, Rose

Fessing up when we mess up

Yes, I made up a word. If it gets your attention then it is worth it. For that matter what would it take to get your attention?

Recently a man who died in a tragic accident had an incredibly high alcohol level in his blood which probably contributed to his accident. Another man who has impressed many, confessed to doping to enhance his abilities in athletics.

When we read these stories how do we react? Do we get real self righteous and say, "That wouldn't happen to me?" Or could we see it for what it is? Yes, we live in a crazy mixed up world!

A few weeks ago I mentioned King David and his sins. He did confess them before God. And God forgave him.

So I am thinking of another king who tried to justify what he did and he never did understand he had sinned. I am thinking of King Saul. Read 1 Samuel 13 and 15 and see how sad this man was. Saul never understood the kingdom wasn't about him. He never really came clean and God eventually gave him over to a depraved mind. And God took the kingdom from him.

Why is it so hard to own up to our messes? Why can't we just do like the tax collector and say, "God have mercy on me, because I am a sinner!" If you read this account in Luke 18:10-14, you may see yourself. After all, my sins are not nearly as big as the local dope dealer, drunkard, adulterer, etc. Fessing up, when we mess up is what we all need to do
