Speaking Where The Bible Speaks; Silent Where The Bible Is Silent

June 15, 2014

From God's Little Devotional Book

Quite often when a man thinks his mind is getting broader, it's only his conscience stretching.

Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure, but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

Titus 1:15

Anarchy In Your Head .com by Dale Everett

A mother was helping her son one day with his spelling assignment and they came to the words conscious and conscience. She asked her son. "Do you know the difference between these two words?"

Philippians 4:13

I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

He immediately replied. "Sure, Mom. Conscious is when you are aware of something. And, conscience is when you wish you weren't."

The conscience is like a sharp square peg in our hearts. When we are confronted by a situation that calls for a right-or-wrong decision, that square begins to turn. Its corner cuts into our hearts, warning us with an inward "knowing" that we are facing a situation in which we must make a choice against evil and for good.

If the conscience is ignored time after time, however, the corners of the square are gradually worn down and it becomes a circle that twists and turns at will.

When that circle turns within our hearts, there is no inner sensation of warning. In effects, we are left without a conscience.

A sound conscience is truly a gift from God. Heed its warning signals early and you will be spared much pain and heartache.

Verbally Inspired

Mike Riley

The Bible claims that it is verbally inspired (2 Timothy 3:16). The Greek word translated "inspired" is theopneustos from (Theos, "God," pneo, "to breathe").

This means that the very words of the Bible narrative are from God. In 2 Samuel 23:2, David declared: "The Spirit of Jehovah spake by me, And his word was upon my tongue."

Here David affirms: (a) He has been used as a instrument of the Spirit; (b) The ultimate source of the message was God; (c) The divine message was presented by words. Though David's tongue was used, in reality, the word was God's. In Acts 1:16, Peter states that the Holy Spirit spoke through the mouth of David concerning Judas' betrayal of Jesus (Psalm 41:9)

We are told in 2 Peter 1:21 that various men, chosen by God to be the human instruments to reveal His will through the written word, wrote as they were guided by the Holy Spirit. They did not write what they "thought" God said. These men did not pen what they "wished" God said; neither did they write what they "thought" God "ought" to have said. They wrote exactly what God wanted them to write.

Because the Bible is verbally inspired of God, it is the powerful medium (Romans 1:16; Hebrews 4:12) through which mankind is to be convicted of their sins (Acts 2:37) and converted to Christ and His church (Acts 2:41,47). Let us as faithful brethren continue to preach and teach God's inspired and powerful word to the spiritually lost (2 Timothy 4:2; Matthew 28:19-20; Mark 16:15-16).
