Beloved friends and family in Christ, greeting from our home to yours,
 By the time you will have received our newsletters, I would have had my last surgery for a polyp discovered six months after my last surgery and was told it would have to be removed in the Spring. My surgery is planned for June 11th, I will be going in the morning and be out in the afternoon, but will have to rest all of the following day.
 Some sad news the Perez family are not coming anymore after he had me contact a friend of theirs that they said was interested in Bible study. They first thing she asked was "If we believed in the Holy Spirit and in the 2nd coming of Christ to establish His Kingdom". She also asked if we believed in speaking in tongues and laying hands on people like the Apostles did. I answered questions and told her if they would allow me to come and study with them all these important subjects. Well a few hours later she called me and told me “I don’t agree with your teaching because God revealed all these things to me personally so I don’t want to study with you or anyone from your Church”. I called the Perez family and he told me “Yes I know my friend is little crazy about religion, and that they would continue to come». Well guess what, the Perez family has not been back to worship since then.

This April, Stiven Mendez and his family came down to Paris to get papers from their embassy, so while the rest of the family went to their Embassy. Stiven stayed with us and I had a Bible study with Him. Before going back home he stayed and ate with us, and just before he had to live I gave him two DVD and Bible teaching materiel. What was nice is the fact that we had the chance to meet his whole family. I am keeping Him supplied with all kind a Bible materials. What I like about him even though he is all by himself in Caen he is zealous to go out and talk to people about the gospel, even at work he shares his faith with his coworkers. I wish all the Christians had zeal like him for spreading the good news.

In April I was looking forward to the coming of my Sister Michelle and niece Rosie, so they arrived on the 9th of April and stayed till the 28th of April. I was so happy and wished they could have stayed longer. We took four days to go down to Toulon our hometown, visited the graves of Mother, Dad and Uncle the stopped in Gordes on the way back to Paris, where my material grandparents lived. I told my sister “Please don’t wait another 25years for a visit and am grateful to God that they came and we all had a good time.

Rose and Manu at Rose Mary’s.

Sister Marie Defays passed away on the 26th of April, Rose and I drove to Belgium for the funerals. We have known the Defays family since the years since the eighties.

May first was Spring cleaning for the congregation, and more than 20 members showed up, and like every year Rose prepared a pot of Chili which everyone enjoyed very much, plus what other people brought and it is lots of fun working altogether.

Edwige Mossang a French psychologist and friend of sister Margarita Arkan, has been coming to worship on a regular basis for the last 4 weeks, and I asked her about studying the Bible, at first and she replied “Why not!” Then she chose to follow a Bible correspondence course: she is been doing it and has good grades and she told me that “She was learning quite a bit about the Bible.” It’s my prayer that she will obey the gospel.

We were happy to see Frank and Liva Delormel, at worship, and Rose and I we also try to visit them as often as we can, but not often as we wish. Every time we go and visit them we have Bible study together. This past two months I have put out 7 new tracts and I must say that lots of people from the street come in and take our tracks and brochures, besides our own members so therefore for the last two months 1,641 tracts were taken.

Brother Richard England, professor at Freed Hardeman University and his family were supposed to come to Mauritius Island and be the guest speaker for the Bible Bowl, and evangelization campaign, but unfortunately he will not be able to make it due to the fact that his father passed away and his mother is very sick. We sure are going to miss them, so therefore I will replace him and be the guest speaker. Ten members of our congregation will be going with us; some will be coming from South Africa and perhaps some from maybe some from India. We are looking forward to be there and do the best to encourage the church and share the good news with Mauritius People.

We are grateful unto God for all to of you that are continuing to help us spreading the saving message of Christ in Paris and the French world.

In Him
Roland.
