Dear Ladies,

Rose Mary had her surgery and was off a month and the great news is that all biopsies came back good. Roland's came back fine and blood tests too. I had two biopsies that came back fine too. We have much to be thankful for. We will know more later about the stone in Roland's saliva gland. I had to talk about this as Roland never mentioned it.

We miss Rony and Vernonique since they have been transferred to Nice, France but do get to see them once in awhile in worship here. We welcome Sterling and Alex and Fred here. We were very happy to have Stiven Mendez stay with us and a visit from Janet and Harry Cybulski and Paul and Reba Walling from Flint, MI. Vance from Lille was able to eat with us also. Bob and Dorie Black came through and we so enjoyed getting to meet them. Irena had supper with us one evening than stayed for the church.

I have three new students on Saturday morning ages 3, 7, and 9 years old. Their names are Lamia, Lina, and Camelia Bakir. Their Mother Malika stays with them as we do the lessons in English. She says she is learning too.

Edwige is still studying and

I ask you to pray for her and Marie Laurence. Rose Mary is back to work now. Irena was baptized in Strasbourg on Sept 7th so keep her in prayers too. My Aunt Sarah turned 101 years old on Sept 7th , on the 17th of Sept I turned 65 and on Oct 4th we had our 45th Wedding Anniversary. Roland and I went out for a meal all by ourselves.

Thanks for your help by keeping us in prayers for us and the work of the Lord's. Thanks for the financial support that you give us.

I am still learning more crochet and some of the Christmas gifts are going to be handmade by me. I did some shawls in a corner to corner stitch already and Lily Rose wants me to make her a purple scarf which means lavender color as she likes the lighter shade. God bless you all. We have been praying for James ,Michelle and Jesse Holland in GA. and Ed Williamson in OH. We also pray for many others.

Love Rose

After Thanksgiving comes Christmas. The Holiday Season has begun. Have a Happy and Safe Holiday Season!

Doing Your Best Joel Stephen Williams

Many years ago in a textile factory there was a sign on the wall which read: "If your threads get tangled, send for the foreman." One woman who was fairly new was a diligent worker, but her threads got tangled one day. She tried to disentangle them, but her efforts only made matters worse. Finally she gave up and called the foreman. He came and looked for a few moments and then asked: "You have been trying to untangle them yourself, haven't you?" "Yes," she replied. "Why didn't you send for me, according to the instruction?" She shrugged her shoulders and said: "I did my best." With much tact, yet, with great insight, he quietly said: "Remember that doing your best is sending for me."

How often in life have we tried to straighten out our own messes, only to make things worse, and certainly not to solve things? We think that a little more human effort, a bit more human wisdom, and a touch of human ingenuity are the solution. But mankind in general and individuals in particular tend to make the same mistakes over and over again. Bad habits remain in place. Errors are repeated. We may even excuse our conduct by saying: "I did my best." Then God gently, yet firmly, reminds us: "Doing your best is calling for me."

Paul did the best that he could do, but it was not good enough. He mused: "I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate....I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do....Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?" (Rom. 7:15-24). But Paul had learned that to call on the name of Jesus was the best he could do and the solution to his problem (Rom. 10:9-13).
