September Report from Cameroon – Abasiana John Archibong

Dear brethren in Christ, we bring greetings to you all from Cameroon. We enjoyed our fruitful labors in the vineyard of Christ in the month of September. We celebrate the great commission because we have seen the hand of the Lord touching the lives of so many people thus far, and a great difference has been made in various ways in their lives by our preaching. Heaven rejoices when even one soul repents. In the month of September, the month of my wife's birthday, one such soul was born of water and of the Spirit. His name is Kingsley Ndenge, who formerly worshiped with the Presbyterian church. Kingsley is an educated man in his mid thirties. He spent some years in South Africa doing his post graduate studies before returning to his country Cameroon last year. We pray that he will keep advancing in the faith.

Philippians 4:13

I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

Still on evangelism, we need to relate great things that our two radio evangelism programs have accomplished so far. One major stride is that the gospel is now well-known in Limbe and other cities where the only word they often heard was "The Blind will see, the lame will walk". The Lord had used us to grant them many opportunities to know the truth and be made free. The gospel is good and the message it carries is a caring one. Thank you for working with us to touch the lives of these individuals. We are blessed with you over there and also with our congregation here at Washing Point, Limbe.

Let me remind you that the body of believers in Limbe is very hardworking in the kingdom of the Lord. This prayerful congregation is always watching out for effective means to reach out to the lost souls. So, our congregation is moving on, though hampered by our unfinished building work. However, we are emboldened by these monthly additions of the saved to the body of Christ. A decent place of assembling may be an incentive to raise these new converts, but in the absence of such necessities, we will still remain committed to evangelism because the results keep flooding in. To God be the praise.

Yes, we indeed are praising God in Cameroon for the privilege to serve in His great commission. This privilege is so precious to us because we know that our heavenly reward is unimaginably great. That is why we will always be thankful to all our supporters. Your contribution to aid the campaign for Christ in Cameroon is indispensable. Your participation in this fierce battle for souls is a source of inspiration for me in particular. I will continue to sacrifice and pay the price for depopulating the pedestrians of the broad way by pointing them to the narrow path to eternal glory.

Your awesome sacrifices have really assisted us in many ways to serve the interests of Christ. We thank all of you very much for all your efforts in supporting me and my family and the orphans and the congregation all this while. Special dedication to a great servant of God, bro Olan Bacon, for his immeasurable work with the Ellabell church and West African Missions. We are united in prayers for his family and the entire body of Christ in Ellabell and all around the globe. The brethren in Cameroon are praying for you and the church at Ellabell. THANKS.

Cards Received:

Thank you for all the calls, texts, visits, and prayers throughout Daddy's illness. We can never express to you just how much Daddy loved all of you. He was most proud of all the accomplishments of "our little church" and the part he played. We greatly appreciate all you've done for us during this difficult time.

Love, the Bacon Family

Thank you for your kindness during our difficult time. The food you brought was greatly appreciated!

Love, The Bacons

P.S. Thanks also for the fruit basket and the many prayers!
