DONKEYS & MULES: THE RIDE OF KINGS

Jesus was not showing humility when he rode a donkey on what we call his "Triumphal Entry" into Jerusalem. What the people saw was their king on the ride of kings. So they sang!

Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!.

(Luke 19:38)

Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the King of Israel!

(John 12:13)

Webster defines a mule as the offspring of a horse and donkey. Judges 5:9-10 says, "My heart is with Israel's princes....you who ride on white donkeys." Judge Jair led Israel 22 years, and had 30 sons who rode 30 donkeys (Judges 10:3-4). Judge Abdon, who ruled Israel 8 years, had 70 sons and grandsons who rode on 70 donkeys (Judges 12:14).

II Samuel 18:9 says Absalom, King David's son, rode on a mule. In I Kings 1:33,38,44, David ordained that his son, Solomon, ride on his own mule through the street as one proof that he chose Solomon to be the next king.

The people knew Jesus was not only riding the ride of kings, but was also at last fulfilling the prophecy they all knew well:

Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion!

See, your king is coming seated on a donkey's colt!

(John 12:15; Zechariah 9:9)

And herein is the humility that Jesus did exhibit: He rode on the colt of a donkey. Still, even the colt was a sign to his followers. They knew so well the entire prophecy of Zechariah continued in 9:10, looking forward in time to that Triumphant Day:

He will proclaim peace to the nations!

His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the River
To the ends of the earth!

What About Church Growth?

By Mike Riley

Almost every religious journal carries an article about church growth. Seminars are conducted about it. Experts on church growth have become as numerous as fleas on a dog. There are many misconceptions about church growth as well as mistakes as to what real growth is. Many err in regard to what it takes for a congregation to grow.

The Amount Of Contribution

The general consensus seems to be that if the contribution is above average or exceeding the budget, it is an indication of church growth. While it is true that if a church is to grow properly each member must give liberally and cheerfully (2 Corinthians 8:2; 2 Corinthians 9:7), a big contribution is not the determining factor in church growth. Some "big givers" in the church are such because the preacher doesn't "step on their toes". Should he begin to "crack down" on their sins, they cut down on their contribution. A church is not growing much if an above average contribution depends on sanctioning sin.

The Incorrect Assessment Of Numbers

Another false measurement of church growth is an incorrect assessment of numbers. A mere shift of members from one place to another is no growth at all. The Lord's instruction is "Go make disciples" (Matthew 28:18 – ESV) rather than "compete for what you already have". New carpet, air conditioning, comfortable pews, or size and beauty of a building do not determine growth. Millions of dollars have been spent on the concept that such are indications of church growth.

Indications Of Real Growth

What then are indications of real growth? Let's ask ourselves, how God conscious are the members? Do they put Him first in their lives? (Matthew 6:33). Are they seeking to present His image in daily conduct? (2 Corinthians 3:18; James 1:23). How do the members treat one another? Do they "rejoice with them that do rejoice and weep with them that weep"? (Romans 12:15). What about indications of concern for the needy? (James 2:14-18; 1 John 3:17-18). Is there an earnest desire that the lost hear the gospel? If members are faithful in true evangelism and real benevolence as they should be, church growth will take care of itself, all the church growth seminars being conducted notwithstanding.

Conclusion

Most members say they want the church to grow. But church growth is a lot like the weather – everybody talks about it, but no one does much about it. Ask yourself, how long has it been since I invited a non-Christian to attend a service and hear the gospel preached? It might be surprising how many people in your city or community have never been personally invited to attend the services of the Lord's church. What are you (and I) doing to help the church grow?
