Thanksgiving – Every Day

By Mike Riley

It seems that the commercialization of the Thanksgiving and

EACH DAY I AM THANKFUL FOR NIGHTS THAT TURNED INTO MORNINGS
 FRIENDS THAT TURNED INTO FAMILY DREAMS THAT TURNED INTO REALITY AND LIKES THAT TURNED INTO LOVE

Christmas holidays is more prominent today than ever before, with television ads displaying Christmas merchandise even before Thanksgiving. I'm wondering, are we truly thankful for what God has given us?

When I was growing up on a country farm back in the 1940's, we were truly thankful for what few things we had. I can vividly remember not having a pair of shoes until I was six years old because we couldn't afford them.

My grandfather and grandmother didn't have electricity on their farm until 1947. They used kerosene lamps to see during the evening hours and used wood to heat their pot belly stove to stay warm during the winter months. We had a cement cistern out in front of the old farm house to draw fresh water from.

What few clothes we had, my mother and grandmother made them by hand. There were no Wal-Mart supercenters to run to in those days. Living out in the country, seeing a doctor was difficult as the nearest town of Wellington, Texas was about thirty-five miles away. Instead of running to a doctor, my grandparents

Be thankful for yesterday because you have wonderful memories to think about.
Be thankful for today because you are able to wake up to celebrate life.
Be thankful for tomorrow because you will be able to fulfill your dreams and wishes.
But most of all be thankful to GOD for HE is with you everyday.

used home remedies such as epsom salt to get rid of the poison in my system when I would stick nails in my feet due to not having any shoes. They used castor oil for all other medicinal needs.

Folks, I've stated all of the above facts to make a point. The point is, we don't have to have a lot of "things" to be thankful for what God has provided us — everyday of our life — not just on Thanksgiving Day.

The God who provides us with every good and perfect gift (James 1:17; cf. Acts 17:24-25), will sustain us, no matter what our circumstances may be (Philippians 4:11).

Dear reader, let's be truly thankful and faithful to God (1 Thessalonians 5:18; Matthew 6:25-33) — not only this Thanksgiving Day, but every day, and He will be faithful in continually providing our every need (Philippians 4:19).

Hiding in the Cleft of the Rock

Mike King

On the Gettysburg battlefield, there are two round top hills with a rocky area between known as "Devil's Den" It became a place of refuge during the fierce battle. Following the battle, many bodies were retrieved of soldiers seeking refuge "in the cleft of the rock." What was hoped to be protection became a vault by which they were entrapped.

We have been promised refuge during times of threat and harm which cannot be penetrated by the most cunning enemy. David had found refuge in God's protective custody many times about which he wrote with these words: "I love you, O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge. He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I call to the Lord, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies" (Ps. 18:1-3). God's glory is seen from the Rock as is expressed by the words of the old song, "Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in thee". I find comfort in the passage where God told His people of the Exodus that "There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock" (Ex. 23:21-23).

There is the story of a little bird that was being chased by a much larger bird of prey. The little bird flew to save its life, darting about while being pursued by the larger bird. The little bird quickly flew into a crevice in a rock face, inside the cleft in the rock. The larger bird gave up. The little bird had found shelter in the rock, out of reach from fearsome claws. It's life was saved. How like the little bird are we!

Keep in mind that "He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty" (Ps. 9:1). "He will cover you with His pinions and under His wings you may seek refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and bulwark" (Ps. 91:1).

The wonderful and warm embrace of our heavenly Father is a place of refuge and not a "Devil's Den." When we try to find comfort in the clutches of alcohol, drugs, sex, money or so many other cares of the world by which we are surrounded, they become a prison and not a refuge. We must take confidence and courage in knowing that our God is our protectorate and never a threat!

The will of God will not take you to where the grace of God will not protect you.
